

Distinguished Lecture Series

OTUG announces its 2001 Distinguished Lecture Series, "A Call to Action," at the O'Shaughnessy Education Center (OEC) on the St. Paul campus of the University of St. Thomas.

Object Technology Users Group

1 June 19

Jef Raskin

Author of The Humane Interface

2 July 17

David West

Formerly of St. Thomas's GPS Faculty, now Professor of MIS at New Mexico Highlands University

3 September 18

Linda Rising

Editor of A Patterns Handbook, author of The Patterns Almanac 2000

4 October 11

Kristen Nygaard

Co-creator of SIMULA, the first object-oriented programming language

2001

The OTUG 2001 Distinguished Lecture Series, "A Call to Action," invites all of us to consider how we will shape the future of computing. Join us for four evenings of challenging and provocative lectures.

The schedule for each evening:

- ▶ 5:30 PM- light hors d'oeuvres
- ▶ 7:00 to 10:00 PM - lecture
- ▶ 8:30 PM - 20-minute dessert break

Ticket Purchase Information

For single event tickets, the cost is $25 for members and students, $30 for non-members. Or save $20 by purchasing the entire series of four presentations in advance, at $80 for members and students, $100 for non-members (that works out to a free membership for non-members). Download the ticket order form from www.otug.org. You will receive an e-mail confirmation upon receipt of your order.

Note: Pre-sales ticket orders MUST be received by June 11th. Tickets will be available for pick-up the night of the presentation.

Mail your order form and check made out to OTUG to the following address

OTUG 2001 DLS Ticket Sales
Talent Software Services
C/O Pam Rostal
5353 Wayzata Boulevard
Suite 200
Minneapolis, MN 55416

If you are not currently a member and you wish to join, enclose your membership form downloaded from our web site, www.otug.org, with your Distinguished Series purchase. Dues are $20.00 annually, or $35.00 for two years.

Sponsorship Information

If your company is interested in donating $1000 towards refreshments for the series, it can receive up to 10 tickets at half price, among other benefits. For more information, contact Laura Taswell Wicks: lwicks@acm.org (952) 595-9196.

Logistics

- ▶ Directions to OEC: see www.stthomas.edu/maps
- ▶ Lot parking: Enter the University from Selby Avenue at Finn Street and follow the road down towards the stadium playing field to the underground visitors pay lot.
- ▶ Street parking: There are parking spaces on the streets that border the campus—specifically certain sides of Summit, Cleveland, Cretin and Selby Avenues—but posted time restrictions apply to several of these streets, so please check the signs.

Jef Raskin	"Making Machines Fit for Human Consumption"
David West	"People, Poetry, and Culture: Reinventing Software Development"
Linda Rising	"A New Approach to Process Improvement Using Patterns"
Kristen Nygaard	"What Your Mother Never Told You about Object-Oriented Programming"

For more information, visit <http://www.otug.org>